

The Junior Classical League

Classical Magnet School

The Junior Classical League is Classical Magnet's Latin club. Its parent, the National Junior Classical League, is a national organization of Latin clubs with more than 50,000 members in the United States.

Why join the Junior Classical League?

- A student in the Junior Classical League will be eligible to join the National Latin Honor Society.
- JCL members can form valuable relationships with other Latin students in the school and throughout the country.
- JCL members in their senior year are also eligible for scholarships valued from $1000 to $1500.
- It's a lot of fun!
